TASMSS0172-V01 – Lead and Coach Agri Workers

NO FEE SKILL UP course

Applications now open!

This course is ideal for anyone working in the agricultural industry who aspires to move into a leadership or coaching role.

Overview

Lead and Coach Agri Workers is aimed at workers in the agricultural industry on a farm, processing plant or harvesting crew who are keen to step up and take a lead role. This course will provide the skills to lead and coach a team of agri workers. Participants will learn how to match tasks to workers, coordinate and assign duties to get the job done, along with gaining skills in building relationships, managing conflict, and negotiating.

Participants will also develop the knowledge and skills to:

- support workers by identifying training needs and learning opportunities in the workplace.
- learn how to support on-the-job training, and
- provide coaching and feedback to workers.

This course is delivered over eight weeks and involves three days of face to face training on campus, three days of online learning along with undertaking workplace activities.
